IF promises would elect candidates they would all be sure of election.

WHEN the seventh of November arrives it will be apparent that there were many candidates who "also ran."

WE don't see Republican daily papers saying any kind words for Gillett. On the other hand Bell's doings are given much prominence. This looks significant.

IT now looks as if Cuba would of necessity have to become a part of the United States. Let it come. One more baby for your Uncle Samuel to care for will not seriously bother him.

SPITZER, January and Pfister have a sure election. Friend Spitzer, instead of going to the coast or his Azule Springs home and save his money, as many would do, prefers to be "on deck" and greet his many friends, just as if he had an opponent. He has also placed his political card in the papers of the county to show the pencil pushers that he hasn't forgotten past favors.

WHEN an official has been tried and not found wanting is it not a pretty good policy to keep him in office? Is there a person who has had dealings with the County Superintendent of Schools office but what speaks in the highest praise of the manner in which Superintendent Bateman conducts the office? And what shall be said of Mrs. Bateman, his most able assistant, who has everything systematized to a marked degree? Surely with such a record as Mr. Bateman has made no voter will want to take any chances of experimenting with untried persons in that important position.

RE-ELECT DISTRICT ATTORNEY CAMPBELL.

WE want to go on record as being heartily in favor of the re-election of District Attorney James H. Campbell, for the reason that we believe him to be an honest official, trying to enforce the laws against crime, and that with not the support which he should have and to which he is justly entitled. When an official is trying to do his duty why shouldn't he have the support of the law abiding people? We believe that Mr. Campbell has demonstrated his courage and ability to clean out the slot machines and gambling

It therefore strikes us as rather strange that papers like the Mercury and Herald should print such an editorial as that which appeared in those papers Wednesday. It was silly.

TOM TREANOR DESERVES TO BE ELECTED RECORDER.

IF there is one man who has a just claim to be elected at the coming election, that man is Tom Treanor, for County Recorder. Elected four years ago by a majority of 499 votes, yet he was counted out on a "technicality" by 3 votes. It is not our purpose to go into the details of that shameful affair, but simply to remind our readers that no one questions the fact that Mr. Treanor was elected, but was counted out after a two years' contest and at great expense to him, because some 500 Democrats stamped an "X" opposite the words "No Nomination" in the Democratic column for the office of Surveyor, thinking they were voting for Mr. McMillan the Republican candidate, the Democrats having no candidate for that office. Judge Rhodes decided that those ballots should be thrown out and therefore Mr. Treanor was made to suffer for the acts of these Democrats wishing to help out the Republican candidate. Now wouldn't it be the proper thing for the Republicans to give Tom a lift this time, as a mere matter of justice?

No one questions Tom Treanor's ability to conduct the office in a satisfactory manner. In the two years that he served in the capacity of Recorder he exemplified to a marked degree his fitness for the position. When he took office he found a vast amount of back records to transcribe on the record books. He went at the task and at great expense and time he put the books in splendid shape for his successor to take up. Obliging, careful and courteous to all patrons of the office, he naturally added to his already host of friends many more who now are lending their aid in the work of re-electing him by such a majority that he can't be counted out.

Therefore as a matter of SIMPLE JUSTICE Thos. W. Treanor should be elected County Recorder.

And he WILL BE ELECTED without a doubt.

EDITORIAL BREVETIES.

Mr. Hearst strives to create the impression that his side show is the big tent.

Mr. Littlefield finds that among other cold things in Maine, is a reduced plurality.

Mayor Dunne aims to make Chicago a model city. What a long jump that will be.

Some men run so hard for an office that they can do nothing but rest after they get it.

He must be a small sized Congressman who admits that Roosevelt is the issue in his district.

Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson displays great modesty in admitting that Mr. Bryan is the greatest man in the United States.

Banker Stensland is said to have four trunks of clothes. All the same the State of Illinois will insist upon giving him one more suit.

Secretary Shaw seems to suggest that the American who pays more than the foreigner for our own manufactures is lucky to have the price.

Those Georgians have already elected Hoke Smith Governor and Mr. Bryan President. So, why may not the rest of us turn in and save the crops?

From the way cataclysms are coming in bunches this year, we should think the man who had charge of a bank might hesitate about looting it.

Chicago's food inspector has a consignment of olives under suspicion, but the trouble is, no one can tell whether an olive is bad or not just by tasting it.

Let us be thankful, anyway, for a kind and generous lot of campaign managers who have allowed us to forget that we are in the midst of the fall campaign.

Probably Mr. Odell meant the comparison as a compliment indicating that Governor Higgins had grown in the last two years—outgrown his trainer in fact.

Japan may figure that it is up and coming as one of the advanced nations, when it has a Socialist movement in Tokyo strong enough to boycott the street cars.

In Pennsylvania seventy people the other day celebrated the thirtieth birthday of a horse. At any rate, that is an improvement on the Newport dog and monkey society events.

Hearst wants to be Governor of New York in order to crush the corporations, Jerome will take it down to the bosses and Higgins is almost persuaded to accept in order to save the people.

So Mr. Corey may marry Mabelle Gilman after all. Well, well. About the only one of those Pittsburg millionaires to stand pat is Mr. Carnegie himself. His only dissipation is spelling reform.

In view of the latest election returns, it is difficult to tell whether President Roosevelt with his spelling reform, or Mr. Bryan with his government ownership idea made the greatest hit, or whether they both got hit.

In his "Confessions of a Drone," Jos Meddill Patterson, the millionaire Socialist, laments because the wealth produced by workingmen has "by some hocus pocus been transferred to me." Why not transfer it back, instead of gabbling about it?

Speaker Cannon thinks Gompers' demand for anti-injunction law is a menace to civilization, but what would be his emotions if Gompers, like the National Labor Congress of England, now sitting in London, should demand government ownership of railroads, canals and mines, and a pension for every one sixty years of age.

No Voting Machines.

The voting machines owned by Santa Clara county will be absolutely useless at the coming State election, and electors will have to vote by the old Australian ballot system.

This state of affairs is due to the fact that there are eight political parties in the field this year and the machines carry places for only seven. It is believed this condition will apply to every county in the State where machines are used.—Santa Clara News.

The supervisors of Santa Cruz county will macadamize the county road from the Surf City to the Big Trees grove.—Los Gatos Mail.

Mrs. Jack London has taken the Lloyd cottage for two weeks.—Ben Lomond News.

The distribution of patent medicine samples will be prohibited in Santa Cruz by the police.—Los Gatos Mail.

East San Jose's marshal has orders to arrest all dogs running around on the streets without an official tag.—Los Gatos Mail.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Burdette left last Saturday for their home in Pasadena. They were very much pleased with Ben Lomond, its climate and secnery being so much to their liking that they think of purchasing a summer home here.—News.

A car load of lumber was shipped from Boulder Creek August 17th for Watsonville, and arrived at its destination last week. That's putting it through at a dangerous speed—the danger being that the lumber might rot before it got there.—Mail.

In an editorial in last week's Mail we stated that "a good clean ticket from a to z would go a long way toward defeating the whole Democratic-Union Labor menagerie." We didn't imagine at that time that the thing could or would be done; but it's done, and was dead easy. We do not believe there will be the loss of a single name. "Politicks is grate."—Los Gatos Mail. You should not make such rash statements, Friend Smith. It isn't easy to eat crow.

"If we were incorporated" then—The foregoing sentence could be completed in so many ways that its variations would fill columns. If we were incorporated then we could pass an ordinance regulating the speed of the lawless automobilist who passes through our town with lightning speed a menace to the safety of everyone. That there are not frequent accidents is only due to the fact that people have learned to be viligant and ever alert.—Morgan Hill Times. Here's hoping you will incorporate.

Probably the last demonstration that will be made of the merits of the American Safety Powder was made a mile up the Los Gatos creek last Wednesday. This demonstration was made particularly for the information and benefit of Mr. George W. Meyers, a man thoroughly informed upon all known explosives used in mining and engineering, and who represents all the steel corporations on the Pacific Coast. The usual demonstrations of the safety of the powder was first made by A. B. Murray, of the American Safety Powder Company, and afterwards a huge rock twelve feet in diameter was successfully shattered with only a pound of the new powder, and Mr. Meyers' exclamation on seeing the terrific execution wrought was "You've got it; it's the greatest powder in the world!"—Mail.

Dear Sir: The California Promotion Committee has now established permanent headquarters for its Eastern bureau at No. 9 East Twenty-third street, New York. This headquarters has been fitted up in California redwood, and is a most attractive place. It is being used by hundreds of Californians as well as by thousands of visitors, and we are desirous of having our reading room fully supplied with California publications.

Will you kindly have this Eastern bureau placed on your complimentary mailing list, and send there your publications? It will not only materially aid in the work of the committee but will be of direct benefit to you through the advertising your publication will thus get.

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy in this matter, I am,

Cordially yours,
RUFUS P. JENNINGS,
Chairman.

PRESS NOTES

We refer elsewhere to the resignation of the principal from the grammar school. It is no secret but may still be unknown to some that this result was brought about by the circulation of a report that the principal was in poor health by a person whose thoughtlessness certainly is deplorable. The trustees investigated the rumor, finding that the foundation was a recent severe illness he had which had left him in no way incapaciated for the best school work. But while the trustees were earnestly desirous of keeping him, the principal naturally did not care to have a whole community feeling his pulse, mentally if not actually, and so decided to take up another line of work.

The lecture by Rev. Mr. Patchell Friday night was well attended and enjoyed as few lectures can be enjoyed. The subject was of especial interest and the manner of its handling a perfect delight. The financial result means a decided lift to the library.

Charles Reel of San Jose is to take charge of the Campbell Meat Market on the first of the month, managing for Mr. Dowton. Mr. Reel is an old hand at the business and sure to give satisfaction. Claude Inman has accepted a position in Sunnyvale and will move there soon. Mr. Inman and his pleasant young wife will be much missed by their Campbell friends.

The Rev. Wesley Peck of Los Gatos, a retired minister of the Methodist church, with his wife visited Dr. and Mrs. Needham Thursday.

Earl Eddleman came over from Newman to accompany his wife and little son home.

The linen shower for the benefit of the Oriental Home of San Francisco, which was held at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Ainsley Tuesday afternoon was attended by a company of ladies who are interested in home missionary work. A proof much interest was presented. The affair was a success.

A. E. Harris was reported a little better when last heard from.

Mr. William Donlon, principal of the grammar school, tendered his resignation to the school board this week. He has decided to begin at once a course of study for the ministry which he has contemplated for some time The trustees were reluctant to part with a man whose superior ability was plainly in evidence in the brief time he has been in charge of the school. Prof. Smith of the high school will again act as supervising principal. We haven't heard who the new teacher is.

Miss Selleck is enjoying a visit from her mother who lives at San Bernardino.

Mrs. George S. Robson with her little daughter Joyce returned from a year's visit with her mother in England, last Thursday. Her many friends here are giving her a delighted welcome. Mrs. Robson was accompanied home by her sister Miss Dollie Blenkensop who will probably remain a year or more.

Mr. George Mack of Iowa is here on a vistit to his mother on Central avenue. Mr. Mack has been engaged in mining for several years and intends to rest awhile in our genial climate to regain his health which is somewhat impaired.

L. P. Sharpe and family have moved into the cottage recently bought from Ed Gilman. Mr. and Mrs. Gilman and children left for Mountain View Thursday, where they will remain on their fruit ranch until they can secure a cottage at Burlingame. Mr. Gilman came to Campbell some 17 years ago without anything to speak of. He has through hard work and good management secured a competence. He has considerable property left in Campbell, besides his Edenvale and Mountain View ranches, and town lots in Sunnyvale, Palo Alto and other towns up the peninsula.

Mrs. Martin Baumgartner and her little daughter Lois are at the Garden City Sanitarium where the little one is receiving treatment for and illness of long standing.

Mrs. Canine is home from LaMoine where she was called by the serious illness of her son Roy, who is now on the road to health.

Mrs. J. D. Blaine and daughters are home from several weeks stay at Capitola.

His Revenge.

"I understand his daughter is taking vocal lessons. Has she great talent?"

"No, but he is mad at his neighbor."

Knew His Own Meanness.

"Simpson seems to be a very suspicious sort of person."

"Well, I would be too if I knew as well as he does how mean a man can be."

Not Standard.

"What make is your typewriter?"

"Drug store make, I should guess from superficial observation."

Her Ideal.

"What is your ideal husband?"

"One who is long on money and short on advice."

Some people spend so much time being thankful that they are as they are that they lose most of the fun.

Warm weather is too relaxing for warm friendships.

These selections were made Tuesday at a meeting of the County Central Committee, when the following members were present: A. W. Jones, C. C. Spaulding, Charles Detrick, Arthur Ogden, W. A. Beasly, F. H. Benson, J. R. Henwood.

The resignation of Prof. L. R. Green, of Stanford precinct, was received, and Mr. Detrick was elected in his place.

The matter of the place and time of meetings throughout the county was referred to a committee of the candidates and the assistant secretary, with power to act. This committee afterwards met and made the following selections. Promotion Committee's Work.

Information has just been received at the headquarters of the California Promotion Committee, in San Francisco, of the establishment of its Eastern bureau in its new, permanent quarters at No. 9 East Twenty-third street, New York. This is at Madison Square, the great central point of New York, just across from the new office being the famous flatiron building, which is probably the best advertised building in the world.

In the Metropolitan Life Insurance building, in which the new offices of the Eastern bureau are located, is a subway station, a magnificent sub-station of the New York postoffice, and through the arcade of the building thousands pass hourly. There is an entrance to the office of the bureau from this arcade.

It has been arranged to provide a place where visiting Californians may go to get all sorts of information, or to meet their friends. An information bureau has been established concerning New York and its environs so that all visiting Californians may get all necessary information.

There has been much complaint regarding the inability of visitors to New York to obtain information about the city, and the Eastern bureau will try to remedy this so far as California visitors are concerned. All Californians are cordially invited by the California Promotion Committee to make use of the facilities of the Eastern bureau. They will find a desirable place to rest, to meet their friends, to read their home papers and magazines, which are kept on file, and are assured of a genuine California welcome every time they go.

Much interest has been shown by the people and press of New York in the work of the Eastern bureau of the California Promotion Committee, and now it is expected that this interest will be greatly enhanced. Literature of all the counties of California is disseminated from all the counters of the Eastern bureau, as well as from the home office of the committee in California building, Union Square, San Francisco. This work can be greatly increased under the present location, and reliable and accurate information about California will now be given to the thousands who are daily inquiring for the best place to go to get a home or to invest their money.

Western Union Wins Suit.

It is not necessary for the Western Union Telegraph Company to gain franchises from cities and towns through which its lines run, and if a franchise is obtained it is not assessable under any State law, according to a decision rendered Tuesday in the California Supreme Court. The decision was in the case of the Western Union Telegraph Company against the city of Visalia, which was decided against the company in the lower court.

There was no objection made by the company to the tax for the value of its wires and poles, but when the city placed a value of $1500 on the franchise granted by it to the company the latter objected. The city wanted the company to pay a tax of $30 on the franchise and in order to obtain it determined to sell the poles and wires to make good that amount. A restraining order was obtained by the company and the matter was carried to the courts. The lower tribunal sustained the tax on the franchise, but this ruling is now reversed by the Supreme Court.

In explaining the situation the Supreme Court stated that Congress gave a franchise to the Western Union Company on April 24, 1866, awarding it the right to establish its lines over the public domain, along all public highways and over and under navigable waters on the condition that in doing so public traffic be not injured. Streets of cities are classed as highways.—Herald.
